

Eric T. Lund

Associate

303-293-3242

lund@hallevans.com

Eric Lund joined Hall & Evans as an associate in 2017. Mr. Lund’s practice focuses on professional liability and license defense, general insurance liability, and construction defect litigation. He frequently defends licensed professionals including physicians, dentists, psychiatrists, and other healthcare professionals. Mr. Lund is also experienced with construction defect, products liability, workers’ compensation, director and officer liability, commercial lease negotiations, and counseling homeowner’s associations. He represents clients before State and Federal courts in Colorado, the Colorado Medical and Dental Board, and the Colorado Division of Professions and Occupations.

Education

JD: University of Wisconsin Law School, 2013

BS: Loyola University Chicago, 2010, Criminal Justice, Minor in Journalism

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2014

U.S. District Court, District of Colorado

Publications & Seminars

Author, “Compulsory Voting: A Possible Cure for Partisanship and Apathy in U.S. Politics,” Wisconsin International Law Journal, Vol. 31, Issue 1, 2013

Professional Experience

Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Mr. Lund was an Associate Attorney with Treece Alfrey Musat P.C.

Other Activities

Mr. Lund is an active fly fisherman, skier, and pianist. He and his wife enjoy hiking with their two dogs and exploring Colorado’s burgeoning craft brewery scene.