IS THE WORST REALLY OVER?

Designing New Opportunities In 2021

May 10TH, 2021
1:00 pm — 4:00 pm MDT

2020 was a challenging year that we will never forget! With the virus, social unrest and election-year anxieties, we all had to rethink our work (and family) routines on the fly. Design professionals were acutely impacted, dealing with a stalled economy and lockdowns, while trying to keep projects on track. At this year's virtual program, we hope you will participate in a fast-paced, interactive – and hopefully optimistic – discussion on claim trends, helpful contract provisions and ways to recognize and minimize risk in your design and consulting practice.
