David Jones is a trial lawyer. He has tried cases to jury verdicts in Colorado County, State and Federal Courts as lead trial counsel. David's practice emphasizes professional liability defense, particularly in defending physicians, dentists/oral surgeons, and health care professionals in lawsuits and before their respective licensing boards and credentialing entities. He is panel counsel for local and national professional liability insurers. David also has experience defending motor vehicle and consumer products manufacturers in products liability matters. David presents seminars and panel discussions concerning risk management, case development, and trial presentation.

David is a Colorado native. He earned his undergraduate degree from Colby College in Waterville, Maine, and his law degree from the University of Denver College of Law.
