

Deborah M. Kellam

Of Counsel

307-222-4958

kellamd@hallevans.com

Ms. Kellam has a practice that focuses on general civil defense with primary areas of practice in medical/nursing malpractice defense and license matters before the Board of Medicine and Board of Nursing.

Other areas of practice include defense for products liability, pharmaceutical, and general personal injury. Ms. Kellam has also been part of defending complex litigation matters, including wrongful death, personal injury, insurance and products liability.

Ms. Kellam began her career in 1979 as a Registered Nurse at Rose Medical Center in Denver. After becoming an attorney, she worked for Hall & Evans and then moved to Texas with her physician husband, where she was with Groce, Locke & Hebdon in San Antonio until returning to Wyoming, where she practiced law for many years with Sundahl, Powers, Kapp & Martin in Cheyenne. Prior to re-joining Hall & Evans, she was an attorney at Lathrop & Rutledge, P.C., in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Education

Education

JD: Creighton University Law School, 1983, cum laude

BS: University of Wyoming, 1979 Nursing

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 1983

Texas, 1984 inactive

Wyoming, 1989

U.S. District Court, Districts of Colorado and Wyoming

Professional Associations

Wyoming Bar Association

Laramie County Bar Association

Texas Bar Association

Publications & Seminars

Ms. Kellam has presented many seminars to nursing and physician groups in Colorado, Texas, and Wyoming on malpractice defense issues.

Business & Community Service

Defense Lawyers Association of Wyoming, Secretary

American Inns of Court, Cheyenne Chapter

Cheyenne Cottonwood Society, Founding Member

University of Wyoming Health Sciences, Board Member, 2000-2002

St. Mary's Catholic School, Board Member, 1993-1995

Other Activities

Ms. Kellam is married to Cheyenne radiologist, Dr. Michael Kellam. They have three grown children.