

Bria I. May

Associate

303-628-3314

mayb@hallevans.com

Bria May joined the Hall & Evans workers' compensation practice group in 2021. Before joining Hall & Evans, Ms. May served as a Fellow at the Denver City Attorney's Office.

Ms. May received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Colorado School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the University of Colorado. While earning her law degree, she was a mentor for the Women's Law Caucus, a historian for the Black Law Student Association, and a finalist in the Interdisciplinary Ethics Tech Competition. Ms. May was also a student attorney in Colorado Law's Juvenile and Family Law clinic and American Indian Law clinic, and clerked for law firms in Denver, Colorado.

Education

JD: University of Colorado School of Law, 2020

BA: University of Colorado, 2017, English, Dean's List

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2021

Career Distinctions & Honors

Finalist, Interdisciplinary Ethics Tech Competition, 2018

Merit Scholarship

Caplan & Earnest Scholarship

Law Alumni Scholarship