

Talia G. Damrow

Special Counsel

406-969-5229

damrowt@hallevans.com

Talia Damrow concentrates her practice on civil litigation and insurance defense. Ms. Damrow has defended a wide array of litigation including employment, real estate, medical malpractice, and construction defect claims. In the business arena, Ms. Damrow frequently handles contract disputes, corporate contract review and negotiations, and intellectual property trademark matters. She has served as corporate counsel for a broad range of businesses and represents insurance companies in bad faith defense and coverage disputes. Ms. Damrow is licensed in Montana, Washington, Colorado, North Dakota, and Wyoming.

Education

JD: University of Washington School of Law, 2016

BA: California Lutheran University, 2011, Communication and Multimedia, magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

Montana, 2016

Washington, 2017

Colorado, 2019

North Dakota, 2019

Wyoming, 2019

U.S. District Court, Districts of Montana, Colorado, and Wyoming

Before joining Hall & Evans, Ms. Damrow practiced civil litigation at small firms in Billings, Montana. While attending the University of Washington School of Law, Ms. Damrow was Chief Online Editor of the Washington Journal of Law, Technology & Arts, a law clerk for the Washington State Attorney General, and an intern with the Prosecuting Attorney's Office in Issaquah, Washington.

Career Distinctions & Honors

Chief Online Editor, Washington Journal of Law, Technology & Arts, 2015-2016

Decisions

Oltz v. Safeco, 306 F.Supp. 3d 1243: Obtained Summary Judgment in favor of insurer on insured's claims alleging wrongful denial of coverage and violation of Montana's Unfair Trade Practices Act.

Professional Associations

American Bar Association

Claims and Litigation Management Alliance

DRI

Yellowstone Area Bar Association

Publications & Seminars

Author, "Travelers Beware: Tort Liability in The Sharing Economy," Washington Journal of Law, Technology & Arts, Spring Issue 2015

Business & Community Service

Board Member, Dress for Success-Billings, 2022-present