

Kaitlin I. Spittell

Associate

303-628-3348

spittellk@hallevans.com

Kaitlin Spittell centers her practice on labor, employment, and public entity defense. She represents clients on employment law matters, including discrimination and retaliation, reasonable accommodations, disciplinary actions, compensation and benefits, and various types of contracts which include employment agreements, severance agreements, and stock/employee benefit agreements. Ms. Spittell defends clients in state and federal courts in Colorado and during the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and Colorado Civil Rights Division (CCRD) administration processes. Ms. Spittell counsels and supports employers to determine practical solutions to resolve matters within the workplace.

Education

JD: University of Denver Sturm
College of Law, 2016

BA: University of North Texas, 2013,
Political Science and Psychology, with distinction

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2016

U.S. District Court,
District of Colorado

Career Distinctions & Honors

Colorado Super Lawyers®, "Rising Star," Employment & Labor, 2020-2022

Professional Associations

Colorado Women's Bar Association
Colorado Bar Association
Labor & Employment Section
Denver Bar Association
Colorado Defense Lawyers Association

Publications & Seminars

Co-Author, "Raise Your Hand If You Know All the Employment Laws in Colorado. Hands Down. Read On.," Trial Talk, 2019
Co-Author, "Unzipped: Revealing What It Takes to Prevail on Unlawful Sexual Harassment in the Workplace," Trial Talk, 2018