

Taylor Feero

Associate

303-628-3347

feerot@hallevans.com

Taylor Feero joined the Hall & Evans workers' compensation practice group in 2022. Before joining Hall & Evans, Mr. Feero served as a Law Clerk for the Honorable Judge Shelley I. Gilman with the Second Judicial District in Denver, Colorado.

While attending the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, Mr. Feero was an Editor of the Denver Law Review and a student attorney with the Criminal Defense Clinic. He also served as a Judicial Intern for the Honorable Judge Ben Leutwyler with the Eighteenth Judicial District, a Student Intern with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and was a Law Clerk with a small immigration firm in Denver. Prior to law school, Mr. Feero was an English instructor at Southwest Petroleum University through the Peace Corps in Xindu, Sichuan, China.

Education

JD: University of Denver Sturm College of Law, 2019

BA: University of Colorado, 2012, English & Film Studies

Certificates: Basic Legal Research and Advanced Legal Research, Constitutional Rights and Remedies Law, 2019

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2019

Career Distinctions & Honors

Denver Law Review; Associate Editor, 2018-2019; Staff Editor, 2017-2018

Publications & Seminars

Author, "A Small but Significant Reform that Could Have Put the Cap Back on Misdemeanor Sentencing for Colorado's Noncitizens," 95 Den. L. Rev. (online), 2018

Professional Experience

Law Clerk, Honorable Judge Shelley I. Gilman, Second Judicial District, Denver, CO, 2020-2022

Student Intern, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, Denver, CO, 2018

Judicial Intern, Honorable Judge Ben Leutwyler, Eighteenth Judicial District, Centennial, CO, 2017