Erin Snow focuses on Colorado's government affairs and regulatory issues important to her clients. With over a decade of legislative experience, Ms. Snow provides counsel to a wide variety of businesses, nonprofits, and insurers before the Colorado General Assembly and the Division of Insurance.

Before joining Hall & Evans, Ms. Snow was an elected leadership development coach and education policy program leader for a non-profit supporting a national network of civic leaders to end educational inequity. Previously, she served as Legislative Counsel for U.S. Representative Beto O'Rourke, where she advised on veterans' affairs, education, voting rights, campaign finance, and immigration. As Staff Director for the U.S. House of Representatives Veterans' Affairs Economic Opportunity Subcommittee, she drafted and managed legislative priorities at the federal level and oversaw VA and Department of Labor programs. Locally, Ms. Snow served as Policy Director for a former Colorado Senator and congressional candidate, a Consultant for the Colorado Department of Education & Donnell-Kay Foundation, and a Legal Fellow for a Colorado Senator. Before going to law school, she taught 7th grade English in Los Angeles, California as a Teach For America corps member.
