

Christopher T. Brousseau

Associate

303-628-3376

brousseauc@hallevans.com

Christopher T. Brousseau concentrates his practice on civil litigation matters involving premises liability. With over two decades of prosecutorial experience, Mr. Brousseau is a talented litigator, having tried over 150 cases to jury verdict.

Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Mr. Brousseau served as Chief Deputy District Attorney with the First Judicial District Attorney's Office in Jefferson and Gilpin Counties, Colorado. Mr. Brousseau prosecuted charges of first-degree murder, sexual assault, and drug trafficking while supervising the prosecution unit for Gilpin County. He was a member of the Special Victim's Unit and liaison to West Metro Drug Task Force. Mr. Brousseau frequently led trainings for law enforcement, the Colorado District Attorneys' Council, and within the District Attorney's Office. Mr. Brousseau also served as a Deputy District Attorney with the Eighteenth Judicial District handling felony and misdemeanor cases in Arapahoe and Douglas Counties.

Education

JD: University of Denver Sturm
College of Law, 1999

BS: Georgetown
University, 1995,
International Politics, cum laude

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 1999

U.S. District Court,
District of Colorado

Professional Experience

Chief Deputy District Attorney, First Judicial District Attorney's Office, Golden, CO, 2020-2022

Senior Deputy District Attorney, First Judicial District Attorney's Office, Golden, CO, 2016-2020

Deputy District Attorney, First Judicial District Attorney's Office, Golden, CO, 2005-2016

Deputy District Attorney, Eighteenth Judicial District Attorney's Office, Centennial, CO, 1999-2005

Other Activities

Hiking, skiing, and hockey.