

Tanya M. Fraser

Senior Associate

702-982-5800

frasert@hallevans.com

Tanya M. Fraser practices in the areas of commercial litigation, insurance defense, and personal injury. Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Tanya's practice included representing both plaintiffs and defendants in personal injury litigation with a focus in trucking and transportation and assisting clients with wills, trusts, and estates, bankruptcy, and small business matters.

Education

JD: University of Nevada-Las Vegas, William S. Boyd School of Law, 2015

BA: Tulane University, 2011, Casino Resort Management, Minor in Applied Business, cum laude

Tanya obtained her Juris Doctorate Degree from UNLV's William S. Boyd School of Law. During law school, Tanya was invited to join Boyd Law School's elite Moot Court Team. As a Public Interest Fellow, Tanya graduated with Pro Bono Honors after helping to provide legal services to indigent members of the community and to several Native American tribes. She also served as the ABA's 14th Circuit Lieutenant Governor of Indian Law, as Co-Chairman of the Native American Law Students' Association, and as President of the Gaming Law Society.

Bar Admissions

Nevada, 2015

Florida, 2018

U.S. District Court,
District of Nevada