

Meghan A. Sheridan

Member

801-770-4776

sheridanm@hallevans.com

Meghan Sheridan is a civil litigation trial attorney whose practice concentrates in personal injury defense, primarily in recreation accident cases, premises liability, product liability, gig-economy matters, and trucking and aviation accidents. She also works with general contractors and subcontractors on construction defect claims.

Education

JD: University of Utah S.J. Quinney
College of Law, 2012,
High Honors

BS: Pennsylvania
State University,
2001, Psychology,
Highest Honors

Bar Admissions

Utah, 2012

U.S. District Court,
District of Utah

Meghan focuses on understanding her clients' specific business and priorities to build effective working relationships. She emphasizes frequent communication with her clients, including providing early and ongoing case evaluation for potential resolution purposes; however, working on trial strategy from day one. Meghan also provides additional consulting to ski areas and recreation providers regarding risk management, including speaking at ski areas and national conferences regarding winter and summer operations.

Recent Decisions

Summary Judgment granted for ski resort for negligence and gross negligence claims in zip-lining accident.

Defense verdict for ski area in premises liability action.

Defense verdict for ski area in skier-skier collision case.

Summary Judgment granted for commercial airline carrier for negligence alleged in on board incident.

Summary Judgment granted for ski resort for negligence claim on accident in double-black diamond area.

Professional Associations

Board Member, Association of Ski Defense Attorneys, 2022-present

Member, Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel

ASTM International

National Ski Areas Association

Toastmasters

Utah Defense Lawyers Association

Utah State Bar

Other Activities

In her free time, Meghan spends time outdoors with her family, competes in local and regional mountain bike races, and Nordic skiing races.