

W. Andrew Figel

Counsel

303-628-3430

figela@hallevans.com

Andrew Figel is an experienced attorney with more than two decades of litigation and transactional experience. Mr. Figel's litigation practice is focused on the areas of construction and design throughout Colorado and Wyoming. He has successfully defended contractors, architects, engineers, and other construction professionals in complex construction defect matters and contract disputes. Additionally, he has assisted contractors and suppliers with filing mechanic's liens and pursuing lien foreclosure and payment bond actions.

Education

JD: Villanova University School of Law, 1998

BS: Wharton School
of Business,
University of Pennsylvania, 1995,
Finance, Dean's List

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 1998

Wyoming, 2021

U.S. District Court,
Districts of Colorado and Wyoming

Mr. Figel also has extensive experience in personal injury defense, including defending business owners, property managers, and contractors in premises liability actions.

On the transactional side of his practice, Mr. Figel assists with commercial leases, confidentiality agreements, employment and consulting agreements, organizational documents, and shareholder and ownership agreements for corporations and limited liability companies.

Before private practice, Mr. Figel served as subrogation counsel for a national insurance carrier.

Decisions

Fowler & Peth, Inc. v. Regan, 151 P.3d 1281 (Colo. 2007)

In re Regan, 477 F.3d 1209 (10th Cir. 2007)