

Emma K. Knight

Associate

303-628-3314

knighte@hallevans.com

Emma Knight's practice focuses on insurance defense and civil litigation. Ms. Knight is experienced with all phases of litigation related to motor vehicle accidents, premises liability actions, construction defect claims, and dram shop actions. In the insurance arena, she frequently defends carriers facing claims of UM/UIM breach of contract, common law bad faith, and statutory bad faith. Ms. Knight is also experienced in the energy and natural resources industry, having counseled individuals and businesses on issues related to surface and mineral rights and oil and gas estates.

Education

JD: University of
Denver Sturm
College of Law, 2014

MRLS: University of
Denver Sturm
College of Law,
Resources Law
Studies, 2011

BS: University of Wisconsin, 2009,
Spanish Language
and Literature

Certificate: European Studies, University of Wisconsin, 2009

While attending the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, Ms. Knight was a Staff Editor for the Transportation Law Journal and Service Coordinator for the National Renewable Energy Law Society. In addition to a Juris Doctorate degree, Ms. Knight earned a Master of Resources Law Studies specializing in Sustainable Development and Renewable Energy Law and Policy and Environmental Law and Policy.

Career Distinctions & Honors

Staff Editor, University of Denver Sturm College of Law's Transportation Law Journal, 2013-2014

Professional Associations

Arapahoe County Bar Association

Business & Community Service

Volunteer, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 2011-2021

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2016

North Dakota, 2019,
inactive

U.S. District Court,
District of Colorado