

Jeff Soffer

Senior Associate

303-628-3411

sofferj@hallevans.com

Jeff's practice focuses on premises liability, products liability, medical malpractice, employment, hospitality & retail, professional liability, and complex commercial litigation. Representative clients include hospital systems, nursing facilities, trucking companies, gig-economy platforms, retail establishments, and hospitality businesses.

Jeff utilizes his experience in litigation, business strategy, and risk assessment to advocate for clients in high-stakes conflicts, develop innovative legal arguments, and mitigate risk through proactive compliance and dispute resolution.

Prior to joining Hall & Evans in 2025, Jeff worked for two law firms in Houston, Texas. He received his JD from the University of Texas School of Law, his MBA from New York University, and his BA from Northwestern University. He lives in Denver, Colorado with his wife and three fun-loving children.

Education

JD: University of Texas School of Law,
2012

MBA: New York
University, 2017,
Financial Instruments
and Markets,
Economics, and Marketing

BA: Northwestern
University, 2008,
Economics and Philosophy

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2018

Texas, 2012, inactive

Publications & Seminars

Author, "A Professional (lack of) Courtesy: The Emergence of Expert Testimony in Legal and Medical Malpractice Cases," St. Mary's Law Journal on Legal Malpractice and Ethics, Volume 46, 2015

Author, "Apologize First; Mediate Second; Litigate...Never?" The University of Texas School of Law, The Review of Litigation, Volume 34, 2015

Presenter, "A Professional (lack of) Courtesy: The Emergence of Expert Testimony in Legal and Medical Malpractice Cases," St. Mary's Legal Ethics Symposium 2015

Presenter, "Handling Lawsuits: It's Not Just For Lawyers Anymore," American Society for Healthcare Risk Management, Annual Conference & Exhibition, 2014