

Marshall Anderson

Senior Associate

406-519-3484

andersonm@hallevans.com

Marshall Anderson's practice focuses on transportation and business transactions throughout Montana, Colorado, and Wyoming. Mr. Anderson is also experienced with coverage matters, real estate, premises liability, and products liability. Previously, Mr. Anderson served as Associate General Counsel for a captive risk retention group where he oversaw a nationwide portfolio of litigated matters for large motor carriers. In this role he developed and implemented claims handling initiatives to improve operations and mitigate risk. While working in the insurance industry Mr. Anderson obtained his Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation.

Mr. Anderson also practiced at a civil firm in Grand Junction, Colorado focusing on business transactions, estate planning, and real estate. Mr. Anderson is experienced with property and casualty litigation and advising clients on business law matters such as real estate transactions, corporate guidelines, operating agreements, and tax laws.

Education

JD: The University of Montana Alexander Blewett III School of Law, 2020, with honors

BA: Colorado Mesa University, 2014, Business Administration, magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

Montana, 2020

Colorado, 2021

Wyoming, 2025

Career Distinctions & Honors

J. Martin Burke Award for Excellence in Clinical Studies, 2020

Certifications

Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU)

Publications & Seminars

Panelist, "Winning at Trial," USLAW NETWORK Transportation and Logistics Exchange, 2024

Other Activities

Trucking Industry Defense Association (TIDA) Annual Seminar Planning Committee, 2023