

Frank H. Ingham

Member

303-628-3333

inghamf@hallevans.com

Frank Ingham is an experienced trial attorney who litigates complex commercial and residential construction disputes in state and federal court and arbitration, representing developers, design professionals, and contractors. Mr. Ingham litigates matters involving professional liability, premises liability, and general casualty, defending residential and commercial property owners from personal injury claims. He also defends trucking companies in cases involving serious bodily injury.

Education

JD: University of Denver Sturm
College of Law, 2006

BA: Drake University, 1991,
Journalism

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2007

Iowa, 2022

U.S. District Court,
District of Colorado

U.S. District Court,
Southern District of Iowa

Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Mr. Ingham practiced in the same capacity for nine years at two successful insurance defense firms in Denver. From 2007 to 2012, he served as a criminal prosecutor for the Denver City Attorney's Office, prosecuting over 200 jury and bench trials involving domestic violence, assault, and other criminal matters. Prior to his legal career, Mr. Ingham served as a Sergeant in the 18th Airborne Corps, including two tours of southwest Asia. After 4 years of military service, Mr. Ingham went on to work at a large Denver-based mutual fund company as a Series 7 and 63 licensed stockbroker.

Professional Experience

Law Clerk, Honorable Randall C. Arp, First Judicial District Court, Golden, CO, 2006-2007