

Ciara N. Kimminau

Associate

303-628-3353

kimminauc@hallevans.com

Ciara Kimminau’s practice is focused on labor and employment law and public entity matters. She is also experienced in handling business disputes involving contracts and property.

While attending the University of Colorado Law School, Ms. Kimminau was an ACLU Student Bar Association Representative, a volunteer for the “I Have a Dream” foundation, and the recipient of numerous scholarships. Ms. Kimminau began her career at the Colorado Civil Rights Division handling employment, housing, and public accommodation discrimination. Since moving to private practice, she has focused on employment and commercial business litigation at small firms in Denver.

Education

JD: University of Colorado School of Law, 2019

BA: University of Colorado, 2015, Sociology

Career Distinctions & Honors

Stavish Family Endowed Scholarship

William & Maxine Rentfro Law Diversity Scholarship

Gilbert Goldstein Scholarship

Bar Admissions

Colorado, 2019

U.S. District Court,
District of Colorado