

Marcella Alvarez Morgan

Senior Associate

505-303-4926

morganm@hallevans.com

Marcella Alvarez Morgan has a broad range of civil litigation experience representing individuals, businesses, and insurers. Ms. Morgan's practice includes premises liability, construction, trucking, employment, and environmental matters. She is also experienced with commercial real estate, business transactions, trademark, and copyright matters.

Education

JD: Northeastern University School of Law, 2019

BA: Colorado
College, 2012,
Russian and Literature

Prior to joining Hall & Evans, Ms. Morgan was a litigator at firms in Albuquerque, NM and Boston, MA. While attending Northeastern University School of law, she served as an intern with a global financial services company, a real estate investment trust company, the Massachusetts Department of Revenue, and a legal aid foundation. Ms. Morgan is licensed in New Mexico, Massachusetts, and Texas.

Professional Associations

State Bar of New Mexico, Young Lawyers Division

Bar Admissions

New Mexico, 2023

Massachusetts, 2020

Texas, 2022

U.S. District Court,
Districts of New Mexico and Massachusetts

Publications & Seminars

Co-author, "New Media and Advocacy," Understanding Nonviolence, Chapter 6, Wiley, 2015

Languages

Russian