

Cynthia Loehr

Senior Associate

406-894-2160

loehrc@hallevans.com

Cynthia Ann Loehr has over 25 years of litigation and administrative law experience. Ms. Loehr's background includes employment law, insurance defense, commercial litigation, environmental and natural resources law, real estate, and regulatory matters. She has represented clients across courts in New Mexico and Montana, and before administrative agencies such as the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission, the New Mexico Environment Department, the Oil Conservation Commission, and Commissioner for Public Lands.

Education

JD: University of New Mexico, 2000

MS: Montana State University, 1986, Statistics

MS: New Mexico Institute of Mining & Technology, 1979, Geology

BS: Fort Lewis College, 1976, magna cum laude, Geology

She advises clients on wide variety of environmental issues in the context of real estate purchases and sales, renewable energy developments, and contaminated site response/remediation. Her commercial litigation experience includes breach of contract, open accounts, fraud and unfair practices matters.

Prior to her career as an attorney, Ms. Loehr spent 15 years as a senior scientist and project manager in environmental, geologic, and engineering projects, including many in support of the United States Department of Energy.

Career Distinctions & Honors

The Best Lawyers in America®, Natural Resources Law, 2024-2027

Bar Admissions

New Mexico, 2001

Montana, 2026